VII. FINANCIAL PROCEDURES

1. General

The rules may be called “the delegation of financial authority and financial procedure rules”.

These rules will be implemented with immediate effect.

These rules supersede all earlier regulations pertaining to the financial authority of subcommittees and financial procedures.

2. Financial functions and responsibilities of managing committees

The Managing Committee (MC) of the school will have full authority to decide on all financial matters of the school subject to the various provisions in this document. However, for matter of convenience and smooth functioning of the school, concerned sub-committees are delegated financial authority to the extent mentioned in succeeding paragraphs.

The Finance Sub-Committee will be responsible for continuous monitoring and advising to the Managing Committee/Higher Board (HB) on the general financial state of the school. For this purpose the sub-committees will prepare Annual Budgets for the financial year, 1 April to 31 March, which will be approved by the MC and the HB. The committee will also prepare Bimonthly review of expenditure, evolve suitable Accounting procedures, Investment Policy for Reserve Funds etc. and submit the same for the approval of the HB and MC.

The Principal will have the authority to sanction non-recurring expenditure up to SR. 2,000/- (Saudi Riyals Two Thousand) at a time, subject to principles of general property and procedures in Category A Schools and SR. 1,000/- (Saudi Riyals One Thousand) for all other schools.

- a. The concerned subcommittees are empowered to approve, non-recurring expenditure up to SR. 5,000.00 (Saudi Riyals Five Thousand, Saudi Riyals Ten Thousand in case of A category schools) at a time to the maximum of SR. 10,000.00 and Twenty Thousand in case of A category schools) in a year. However, all expenditures sanctioned should be well within the annual budget approved by the Managing Committee. Any new proposal entailing expenditure not stipulated in budget will need approval from the Finance Sub-Committee and Managing Committee. .
- b. SPORTS: Expenses for sports including purchase of materials and medals should be budgeted and sanctioned. The sports teachers should submit the requirements including medals, certificates by 10 April so that this can be studied by the Sports Committee (nominated by the Chairman on ad-hoc basis) and forwarded to the Finance Committee and then to the Managing Committee for approval.

- c. LOAN: Loan approved by the Managing Committee to Staff should be restricted to the maximum of 35% of EOSB which is to be repaid in maximum 15 equal instalments. It is recommended that regular staff who have put more than twenty years of service and reached the age of 55 years and above may be permitted to withdraw a maximum of 70% of their EOSB based on their request as per the existing service rules. This facility will be available only once till final retirement.

N.B. All expenditures above the respective ceiling will be referred to the Managing Committee for final sanction. In case of an emergency, when it is not possible to convene the Managing Committee in time, provisional approval to exceed the authority, but only up to double the limit, may be obtained from the Chairman of the Managing Committee and Convener. Finance Sub-Committee by the convener of any other sub-committee and the Principal in writing and resubmit the same at the following Managing Committee meeting for ex-post-facto approval.

All cases being submitted to the Managing Committee that exceed SR. 5,000.00 (Saudi Riyals Five Thousand) for non-recurring expenditure should be accompanied by the prior advice of the Finance Sub-Committee. All expenses of recurring nature will be decided by the Managing Committee.

3. Annual Budget

The Sub-Committees will submit their recommendations/ demand for funds for the New Academic Year at least 3 months before the advent of the fiscal year, i.e. by the end of December. The Finance Sub-committee will prepare the preliminary budget by 01 February and circulate the same to all the members by that date. The Managing Committee will thereafter consider it at a subsequent meeting and approve the same, with or without amendments, latest by 28 February, to enable the new budget to be put into operation on 01 April. The Higher Board must approve the budgets for all International Indian Schools. The Managing Committees should ensure that the budget is a surplus budget of at least 5% of the total revenue, excluding the transfer of establishment levy to revenue, and Transport must be fully self-financed activity.

The budget once approved under major heads cannot be re-appropriated by the sub-committees for which power solely rests with the Managing Committee.

The Finance Sub-committee will undertake a mid-year review of the budget based on actual expenditure and revised estimates of receipts and submit their findings/ recommendations to the Managing Committee, which may then adopt a revised forecast for the year, which must be shared with the HB.

To enable the Managing Committee to monitor the expenditure/revenue, a monthly trial balance and progressive statement of account will be prepared by the Finance Officer / Accountant, giving details of the budget provision, proportional provision for the period elapsed, the exact expenditure and the envisaged major items of the expenditure in the rest of the year. The statement will be prepared by the 10th of each alternate month (starting June) and submitted to the Finance Sub-Committee, which will transmit the same to the Managing Committee, with their comments, if any.

4. Transfer of part of establishment levy of revenue account.

Instead of treating the whole receipt as capital items and transferring to Reserve Fund, a part of it could be treated as revenue and transferred to Income & Expenditure account to meet the additional rental of the new building and impact of long overdue pay revision. It was recommended a maximum of 100% of the levy if non-refundable, could be transferred to revenue account. This item will be reviewed by the Higher Board before implementation.

5. Audit

- a. The Finance Sub-Committee will function as the Internal Auditors of the school accounts. They will carry out periodic audit of the accounts and submit half-yearly audited statement with their observations to the Managing Committee by the 1st of November and 1st of May each year, covering 6 or 12 month period ending on 30th September and 31st March respectively. The statement will include an income-expenditure statement balance sheet, comparison of expenditure on major heads with budgeted figures as well as state of securities, deposits, etc.
- b. External statutory audit firm, as recommended by the Finance Sub-Committee should be appointed by the Chairman. For this the Finance sub-committee should prepare a panel of reputed chartered accountancy firms and evaluate them. Chairman should appoint the auditing firm, under intimation to the Higher Board, to conduct external auditing of school's financial transactions. The Finance sub-committee will assist the auditors from the school side. An audit firm, once engaged shall continue the school audit for a maximum period of four years. Before the completion of the four years period the MC may decide to change the audit firm. Any exception to this must be approved by the Higher Board.

The annual statutory audit must be completed by 30 June, 3 months after the end of the financial year. The audited financial statements must be shared with the HB and filed with the government body as appropriate.

6. Operation of Bank Accounts

- a. All Bank Accounts of the school will be operated by the Principal, Chairman and or a member of the Finance Committee. For this purpose, the Patron may nominate two members of the Committee for the purpose of intimating of signatures to the Bank. The so nominated member (s) should ensure that, laid down procedures have been followed in clearing vouchers, before (counter) signing the relevant payment vouchers and cheques for payment.
- b. The Chairman of the Managing Committee along with the Head of the Institution will compulsorily be the bank signatories. In the absence of the Chairman, the other authorized signatory from the Managing Committee will operate the bank accounts along with the Head of the Institution or in his absence the Finance officer. At any time only two valid signatories should remain in the Bank records and all earlier signatories should be got removed.

7. Payment Procedures.

- a. All payments of over SR. 1,000.00 (Saudi Riyals One Thousand) will be made by crossed cheques only, the only exemption being the salary of non-school Iqama staff. Cash payment will be made from a petty cash imprest chest to be separately maintained by the Cashier and controlled by the Principal.
- b. All payments should be supported by a proper payment vouchers duly authorized by the competent authority under these rules. All payments should be supported by an original invoice/pre receipted bill on the official stationery of the payee. Salary payments should be on proper acquaintance rolls or registers. Vouchers should invariably mention the authority for payment.

8. Custody of Cash and Cheque book and Petty Cash imprest chest.

- a. A Petty Cash imprest /account will be established, the maximum limit of which will be SR. 10,000.00 (Saudi Riyals Ten Thousand), SR 20,000.00 (Twenty Thousand) in case of category A schools. The replenishment request should be accompanied by all relevant vouchers of previous payments. The replenishment will be made by a cash check after due scrutiny by the Principal and a member of the Finance Sub-Committee countersigning the cheque.
- b. A Petty Cash replenishment request should be made when the balance in the imprest falls below SR. 5,000/- (Saudi Riyals Five Thousand). The replenishment request should be accompanied by all relevant vouchers of previous payments. The replenishment will be made by a cash cheque after due scrutiny by the Principal and the Convener or a member of the Finance Sub- Committee countersigning the cheque.
- c. All cash receipts (as also cheques) should be deposited in the Bank on the same day. The Cashier will submit necessary documentary evidence of deposit (e.g. Bank Deposit Slip) along with the back-up documents of collection of cash/cheque to the accountant immediately. Thereafter, in case of genuine difficulty, it should be positively deposited the next working day.
- d. Cash required for bulk disbursement, like salary, etc. should be brought on each occasion and disbursed the same day.
- e. The Cashier will be insured by a Fidelity Guarantee Cover and the School will take out a Money Insurance to cover the risks in physical handling of the cash, for which the school will pay the premium,

9. Receipt of Procedures

All cash receipts will be issued with a numbered official receipt of the School and should carry a rubber stamp of the name of the person actually collecting the money and his/her signature. On no account temporary receipts, etc., should be used. For this purpose sufficient stock of numbered printed books and a logbook of numbered form control will be maintained, duly checked at the time of issue to cash clerks and after use to reconcile the receipts,

10. Supervision of Accounts/Accounts Personnel

- a. The Finance Sub-Committee will assist the Principal in maintaining a periodic check on the accounts, accounting procedures etc. The Principal regularly and the Finance Sub-Committee periodically, will carry out surprise audit checks on the imprest/Cash Balance.
- b. For purpose of recruitment, re-allocation of duties of accounts staff, periodic evaluation of efficiency, disciplinary procedures against these staff etc. the Principal / Finance Sub-Committee will be the decision making authority subject to the approval of its decisions by the Managing Committee.

11. Amendment/Relaxation of Rules

- a. These rules can be amended/ relaxed after the amendments are deliberated and approved in the HB Meeting once in a year.
- b. Notwithstanding stipulations contained in these rules, the Managing Committee with the approval of the Patron may relax the application of the above rules keeping in view the overall interest of the school.

12. Insurance

- a. The Managing Committee should work towards ensuring adequate insurance for the following:
 - i. Property and fixed assets including intangible assets (software, database, etc).
 - ii. Accidents within school premises (for students, employees, outsiders).
 - iii. Accidents within transport facilities.
- b. In case of any discrepancy between the above-mentioned Financial Procedures/Rules and the articles of the Charter of the International Indian Schools in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the relevant articles of the Charter will prevail.

VIII. ADMISSION

- a. Admission is restricted to Indian Nationals between the age of 3 years 6 months and 16 years; the lowest class for admission being LKG. Admissions are granted on the basis of priority of registration and performance in the Admission Test. The entrance test papers will be based on the syllabus of the preceding class to which admission is sought. Admission Tests will be held every year Saturday and Wednesday at 8:00 am until 30 September. Admissions to out-station Indian students will be only from Class VII onwards.
- b. Uniformity in Admission
- c. In order to ensure transparency and uniformity in admission process the following guidelines should be implemented in all the schools:-
- d. There should be a laid down transparent policy for admissions. There could be two ways of practice (i) Filling of vacancies to be done through lucky draw for the lower classes; and (ii) Merit based admission (entrance test) for the higher classes as is done throughout India.
- e. The Higher Board member/ Observer will ensure that all the valid applications have been covered in the lucky draw so that no valid application is missed out.
- f. The person physically picking out the draw will be chosen by the Higher Board Member/Observer.
- g. The number of receipts/ admissions taken out will be initialled by the Principal and the Observer on the spot with date.
- h. Receipts will be preserved as a record of admissions.
- i. The entire lucky draw process will be conducted by the HB Member/Observer (or their nominee) in the presence of Principal and MC Chairman (or a nominated committee member).
- j. The duration/time must be specified well in advance for collection of admission forms or on-line registration, so that people get fair chance to apply.
- k. Manual issue of forms should be pre-numbered and logged for the person/ family.
- l. School must have complete list of the vacancies in each class in advance, duly certified by the Principal.
- m. A copy of the vacancies for admissions must be submitted to the HB certifying that the vacancies can be filled in accordance with the MOE upper limit based on space and number of students per class.
- n. The record of admission every year shall be preserved as public record.
- o. Fresh admissions to KG classes should without fail adhere to the mandated number of students per class. The MOE rules shall be strictly followed.

- p. The MC Members shall not make any recommendations whatsoever with regard to admissions; (i) if made, the same should be ignored and (ii) any such recommendations made will be reported to the HB.
- q. All admissions will be as per the admission policy and on merit.
- r. The Principal shall certify the number of vacancies and clearly state therein regarding the adherence to the mandated principles by showing the break-up of the vacancies so arrived at. (Typically it means that vacancies arising out of students leaving minus the excess numbers over and above the Ministry's mandate will indicate the actual vacancy.)

Instructions for Appraisers/ Reviewing Officers

1. The Confidential Report is a vital document. It provides the basic input for assessing the performance of the staff member so that his potentialities could be best utilized by the school. On the other hand this report is an instrument through which the staff member comes to know about his serious weaknesses, if any. The staff member who is writing his appraisal, the Appraiser and the Reviewing Officer should therefore, under the duty of filling out the form with a high sense of responsibility.
2. The Confidential Report is a tool for Human Resource Development, it is not meant to be fault – finding process. Nonetheless, the Appraiser and the Reviewing Officer should not shy away from reporting shortcomings in the performance, attitudes or the overall personality of the staff member reported upon.
3. The columns should be filled with due care and attention and after devoting adequate time. Any attempt to fill the report in a casual or superficial manner will be easily be discernible to higher authorities. Take each criterion eg. disposition, job knowledge, reliability, etc, independently one by one.
5. 4. While filling the forms and phrases should be chosen carefully and should accurately reflect the intention of the person recording the answer. Please use unambiguous and simple language. Do not use expressions like “Outstanding, Very Good, Good Average, Below Average while giving your specific comments against any of the attributes.
5. It should be the endeavour of each Appraiser and Reviewing Officer to present the truest possible picture of the staff member. All assessments and comments should be based on objective information rather than opinions.
6. Assessment should be confined to the performance during the period of Report. This period will normally be one academic year unless the staff member reported upon has joined or left the job in the midst of the academic year. In the latter case the assessment is to be made for the relevant period in the academic year. A particular reporting officer will be entitled to write the report only if the staff member concerned has worked under him / her for not less than three months during the period under report. In case during a period under a particular staff member has worked under more than one Reporting Officer the report will be written by the reporting Officer under whom the staff member has worked for the longer or longest duration. However, views of all those Reporting Officers should be obtained on record under whom the staff member has worked during the period under report for three months or more.
7. Some posts of the same rank may be more exacting than others. The degree of stress in any post may also vary from time to time. These facts should be borne in mind during appraisal and should be commented upon appropriately. Use the normal operating examples from the job on which to base comments and appraisal, rather than isolated or special instances.
8. Establish plans for improved performance and career development with particular emphasis on the aspects where both management and the job holder can assist respectively towards encouraging the necessary degree of self motivation.
9. Record the assessee’s ambitions and where he / she aspires to be in the organization.

Additional Notes:

1. Performance appraisal should be carried out once every year by the Section Head who is well conversant with the functions and task of the job holder. To be reviewed by the Principal.
2. A second assessment should be made by a higher authority as follows:

For all the Staff Members Raised by the Section Head and Reviewed by the Principal.

For Vice Principals/Registrar/Headmistresses Raised by Principal and reviewed by Chairman

For Principal

Raised by Chairman and reviewed by Patron

3. Each criterion has been assigned points based on the weighted value system. The overall assessment will thus be the result of total points earned considering all the assessment.

Instructions For Appraisers/ Reviewing Officers

1. The Confidential Report is a vital document. It provides the basic input for assessing the performance of the staff member so that his potentialities could be best utilized by the school. On the other hand this report is an instrument through which the staff member comes to know about his serious weaknesses, if any. The staff member who is writing his appraisal, the Appraiser and the Reviewing Officer should therefore, under the duty of filling out the form with a high sense of responsibility.
2. The Confidential Report is a tool for Human Resource Development, it is not meant to be fault – finding process. Nonetheless, the Appraiser and the Reviewing Officer should not shy away from reporting shortcomings in the performance, attitudes or the overall personality of the staff member reported upon.
3. The columns should be filled with due care and attention and after devoting adequate time. Any attempt to fill the report in a casual or superficial manner will be easily be discernible to higher authorities. Take each criterion eg. disposition, job knowledge, reliability, etc, independently one by one.
4. While filling the forms and phrases should be chosen carefully and should accurately reflect the intention of the person recording the answer. Please use unambiguous and simple language. Do not use expressions like “Outstanding, Very Good, Good Average, Below Average while giving your specific comments against any of the attributes.
5. It should be the endeavour of each Appraiser and Reviewing Officer to present the truest possible picture of the staff member. All assessments and comments should be based on objective information rather than opinions.
6. Assessment should be confined to the performance during the period of Report. This period will normally be one academic year unless the staff member reported upon has joined or left the job in the midst of the academic year. In the latter case the assessment is to be made for the relevant period in the academic year. A particular reporting officer will be entitled to write the report only if the staff member concerned has worked under him / her for not less than three months during the period under report. In case during a period under a particular staff member has worked under more than one Reporting Officer the report will be written by the reporting Officer under whom the staff member has worked for the longer or longest duration. However, views of all those Reporting Officers should be obtained on record under whom the staff member has worked during the period under report for three months or more.
7. Some posts of the same rank may be more exacting than others. The degree of stress in any post may also vary from time to time. These facts should be borne in mind during appraisal and should be commented upon appropriately. Use the normal operating examples from the job on which to base comments and appraisal, rather than isolated or special instances.
8. Establish plans for improved performance and career development with particular emphasis on the aspects where both management and the job holder can assist respectively towards encouraging the necessary degree of self motivation.
9. Record the assessee’s ambitions and where he / she aspires to be in the organization.

Additional Notes:

1. Performance appraisal should be carried out once every year by the Section Head who is well conversant with the functions and task of the job holder. To be reviewed by the Principal.

2. A second assessment should be made by a higher authority as follows:

For all the Staff Members Raised by the Section Head and Reviewed by the Principal.

For Vice Principals/Registrar/Headmistresses Raised by Principal and reviewed by Chairman

For Principal Raised by Chairman and reviewed by Patron
