

INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL BURAI DAH
Worksheet for the Academic Year 2023-24
CLASS: VII SUBJECT: ENGLISH
CH# 18 SENTENCE KINDS: BASED ON MEANING

I. Say which kind these sentences belong to.

1. India is the biggest democracy in the world.
2. May God save the poor patient!
3. No one can live without hope.
4. What a charming scene!
5. Have you ever visited a museum?
6. May you succeed in your mission!
7. There is no smoke without fire.
8. How foolish of me to say this!
9. Do not eat fried items.
10. Have patience.

II. Transform the interrogative sentences below into assertive and the assertive sentences into interrogative.

1. Could Socrates help being what he was?
2. Can I allow this nonsense to continue?
3. Isn't virtue its own reward?
4. One cannot hope to gather grapes from thistles.
5. There is none who wishes to be poor.

III. Transform the exclamatory sentences into assertive and assertive sentences in exclamatory.

1. What a charming face!
2. Alas! We have lost the match.
3. A full moon night is very beautiful.
4. The boy is innocent.
5. How sweet her voice is!

IV. Transform the following affirmative sentences into negative sentences.

1. Pakistan is India's enemy.
2. We should be satisfied.
3. The hare run fast.
4. He is poor but contented.
5. Brutus loved Caesar.

