

INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL - BURAI DAH
STD-5/TERM-2/ENGLISH WORKSHEET NO.-4

A. Write meaning of the following.

- (i) Goggles: close fitting glasses
- (ii) lunatic: a slightly strange person
- (iii) nipped: pinched sharply
- (iv) whisked: moved
- (v) emphasis: stress
- (vi) hoarsely: in a rough and harsh voice
- (vii) tiaras: crowns
- (viii) blared: sounded loudly
- (ix) subdued: quiet and sad
- (x) revived: regained strength
- (xi) clinging: holding on tightly
- (xii) chuckled: laughed quietly
- (xiii) sniffed: breathed in noisily, expressing disrespect
- (xiv) magnificent: grand, wonderful
- (xv) morose: sad

B. Make sentences of the following.

- (i) Lunatic: The great composer ended his days in lunatic system.
- (ii) Goggles: Always wear goggles for your eyes while using the machines.
- (iii) Whisked: Jhon whisked them away to the reception room.
- (iv) Emphasis: He put emphasis on his studies for the final exam.

C. Choose the correct answers.

(1) Molly's neighbours thought that she _____ the competition.

- (a) was sure to win (b) would never win (c) may win

(2) Molly expected the _____ in her garden to be very beautiful.

- (a) butterflies (b) buds (c) bushes

(3) Mrs Gordon was colourful because of the _____.

- (a) Her roses (b) her efforts (c) her lawn

(4) Molly's garden was colourful because of the _____.

- (a) Fruits and flowers (b) trees and ornaments (c) birds and butterflies

(5) The cup was finally used as _____.

- (a) an ornament (b) a vase (c) a nest

D. Answer the following questions.

(1) "How can you move an empty sleeve like that"?

- (a) Who said these words to whom?

Ans: Cuss said these words to Bunting

- (b) Why did the speaker ask this question?

Ans: The speaker asked the question to the stranger because he saw the stranger moving empty sleeve.

- (c) What did the other person say in reply?

Ans: The stranger replied to Cuss if he saw an empty sleeve.

(2) “That man at the inn”——

(a) Who said these words to whom?

Ans: Cuss said these words to Bunting.

(b) Who was the speaker referring to?

Ans: The speaker was referring to the stranger man.

(c) Why had the speaker gone to meet this person?

Ans: The speaker had gone to meet the stranger to know his identity and know more about his research work.

(3) Where did the frog croak? How long did he croak everyday?

Ans: The frog croaked all day and night in a bog in an unpleasant voice.

(4) How did the other creatures react upon hearing the nightingale’s song?

Ans: All the creatures in the bog cheered and clapped at her beautiful song. Infact they gathered in crowds to hear the nightingales song.

(5) How did the frog offer to help the nightingale?

Ans: The frog offered to train the nightingale so that she could sing more beautifully.

(6) How did the frog make sure that he was the only one to ‘blare unrivalled through the bog’?

Ans: The frog became unrivalled king of Bingle Bog after the death of nightingale. Now no bird or animal would compete with the frog in singing. Secondly, all of them over there were greatly scared of him.

(7) “All except for one”.

(a) What is referred to as ‘one’?

Ans: It is referred to old Molly’s garden.

(b) How was the ‘one’ different from all the others?

Ans: Molly’s garden was different from all others as the other gardens in the row were very pretty and neat.

(8) So all the snails and slugs and caterpillars made their way to Old Molly's garden. Why did they do so?

Ans: Old Molly's neighbours didn't allow snails and slugs in their garden and they hated caterpillars. They used pesticides in their garden so all the snails and caterpillars made their way to old Molly's garden.

(9) What shows that the mayor was fond of insects?

Ans: The mayor was fond of insects as the bonnet of his car was painted to look like a large bumblebee. His waist coat was embroidered with blue flies and from his ear hung an earring shaped like a golden ant.

(10) "What was the magnificent sight?"

(a) Who said this?

Ans: The mayor of the little town Bunting said this.

(b) What was the magnificent sight?

Ans: The old Molly's garden was a magnificent sight as the caterpillars in Molly's garden has turned into colourful butterflies. The slugs and snails had cleaned the yard outside and Molly's house shone like a shining silver. White fluffy dove and colourful birds chirped and cooed onto the roof.