

INTERNATIONAL INDIAN SCHOOL BURAIDAH

CLASS 8 DEENIYATH WORKSHEET- TERM 2-2025-26

1. Women in Islam

Fill in the blanks

1. Islam gave women the right to property and inheritance.
2. Men and women are equal in the sight of Allah.
3. Islam commands kindness and respect towards women.
4. Women have the right to receive education.

Short Question–Answers

Q1. What status does Islam give to women?

Islam gives women dignity, respect, and equal spiritual status.

Q2. Mention two rights of women in Islam.

Right to education and right to inheritance.

Long Answers

1. What was the condition of women in Arab before Islam?
2. What is Mahr? What is its importance in Islam?
3. How does woman role in society according to Islam, differ from man?

2. Dignity of Work in Islam

Fill in the blanks

1. Islam teaches us that all lawful work is honorable.
2. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ respected all workers.
3. Laziness is disliked in Islam.
4. Earning through halal means is a form of worship.

Short Question–Answers

Q1. What is meant by dignity of work?

It means all lawful work is respectable and honorable.

Q2. Why does Islam encourage hard work?

Because it promotes self-respect and lawful earning.

Long Answers

1. Earning a lawful living is an obligation. Explain.

2. Allah's messenger (SAW) disliked beggary and lethargy. Discuss.

3. What is the teaching of ISLAM relating to payment of workers?

3. Fatima az-Zahra (رضي الله عنها)

Fill in the blanks

1. Fatima az-Zahra (RA) was the daughter of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

2. She was married to Ali Ibn Abi Talib (RA).

3. She was known for her piety and simplicity.

4. Fatima (RA) is an example of a ideal Muslim woman.

Short Question—Answers

Q1. Who was Fatima az-Zahra (RA)?

She was the daughter of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Q2. Mention two qualities of Fatima (RA).

Piety and patience.

Long Answers

1. What did Allah's messenger do when Fatima asked him to give her a servant?

2. Who were the four great women according to our Prophet?

3. Describe Fatima's marriage with Ali (RA)?

4. Sawm (Fasting)

Fill in the blanks.

1. Fasting in Ramadan is compulsory for Muslims.

2. Sawm teaches patience and self-control.

3. The pre-dawn meal is called suhoor.

Short Question–Answers

Q1. What is Sawm?

Sawm is fasting from dawn to sunset during Ramadan.

Q2. Why do Muslims fast?

To obey Allah and develop self-discipline.

Long Answers

1. Mention some of the virtues of fasting?

2. Mention the days over the year on which sawm and Nawafil is commended?

3. What is a voluntary fast?

5. Illness, Death and Funeral Prayer

Fill in the blanks

1. Visiting the sick is a moral duty in Islam.

2. Death is a reality of life.

3. The funeral prayer is called salat al-janazah.

4. Funeral prayer is offered without Ruku and sajdah.

Short Question–Answers

Q1. What should Muslims do when someone is ill?

They should visit, comfort, and pray for the sick.

Q2. What is Salat al-Janazah?

It is the funeral prayer offered for a deceased Muslim.

Long Answers

1. What is the reward of visiting the sick?

2. Write a short note on Salat al-Janazah.

3. Write a short note on some important features of the Salat al-Janazah.

